

Leisure

Taking the time to relax and enjoy life is one of the best things anyone can do. Whether it is to go fishing, play a musical instrument, or learn a new skill, it has never been more important to switch off from technology. Mastering new skills can create a sense of achievement which in turn positively affects other aspects of your life, as can playing brain games like chess or Sudoku. It is essential to savour these leisurely moments when one is free from the demands of work and duty and can truly unwind.
